

AFRICAN ACTION ON AIDS' PREVENTIVE HEALTH PLAN

PACKAGE OF ESSENTIAL ACTIONS TO AVOID DISEASE IN OUR COMMUNITIES

The AAA's health prevention animators encourage the population to systematically adopt the behavior moves below and draw from them natural gestures all their life long – while progressively including them in the cost of their personal budget.

AIDS Screening Test

Fight against Malaria

Clean Hands

Potable Water

Dignified Toilets

De-Worm

Vaccination

Mouth Hygiene

WHAT ?	HOW ?	WHEN?	THE OBJECTIVES ?
Anonymous voluntary AIDS screening test / Mother to Child AIDS Transmission Prevention (MCTP) and Parent to Child AIDS Transmission Prevention (PCTP)	Special contributions /or gifts for grouped purchasing	Depending on each individual or group within the implementation of an annual plan	Members of the community and their families know that they are HIV-positive or not and take the appropriate precautions. The HIV-positive women as well as non HIV-positive ones attend prenatal consultation services (PCS) and PCTP services in order to have babies in good health.
Regular and correct use of condoms — AIDS Infections prevention and that of undesired pregnancies.	Special contributions /or gifts for grouped purchasing		Insure correct use of condoms in order to protect individuals and the community members.
Malaria prevention Distribution and hanging of mosquitoes bed nets Sleeping every night under a treated mosquitoes bed net Keeping the house surroundings and the overall environment clean Putting screens on the house openings Avoiding stagnant waters around the house Spraying the house interior with appropriate insecticides.	Special contributions /or gifts for grouped purchasing		Community members and their families are protected against malaria
Construction of dignified and clean toilets at the level of the Village Savings Banks, Schools, Churches, Hospitals, Health Centers, with Hand washing Stations.	Special contributions/and gifts		Institutions servicing the community have dignified toilets that serve as examples in the community and that are maintained regularly clean.
Construction of clean family toilets with hand washing stations	Community contributions (njangi) or loan from the village bank		The community as a whole improves its health and life quality.
Obtaining potable water stations for the Village Savings Banks, Schools, Churches, Hospitals, Health Centers	Funds from concerned institutions and/ or gifts.		Community institutions have potable water available during their meetings.
Obtaining potable water for families	Community contributions(njangi) or loan from the village bank		Disappearance of water borne diseases in the community
Systematic vaccination (Typhoid, Meningitis, Tetanus)	Special contributions and /or gifts.		Disappearance of infectious diseases in families and communities.
De-worming	Special contributions, village bank loan and/or gifts.		Disappearance of tape worms in families
Never put what you eat on the ground	Education at home and at schools		The community as a whole encourages its members to respect this rule.
Body, mouth, clothing hygiene	Regular body and clothes washing.	The community as a whole encourages its members to respect this rule.	